About the Director

Director KWAK Jae-Yong made a splendid debut with the film A Sketch of a Rainy Day, remembered for its enchanting music and delicate visuals. He returned after a long absence to make the film My Sassy Girl, which exuded his animated, and youthful sensitivity.

After its worldwide success, he is one of most welcomed film-maker around the globe, especially in China, Japan, and Korea, and still actively working on making movies as a director, script writer, and producer. His latest film called Happy New Year has just cranked in, aiming for the 2022 release.

Synopsis

Gyun-woo is a college student, interested in picking up girls. One day, a drunken girl in subway changes his fate. She's nearly unconscious, vomiting on an old guy. She, then, leans on Gyun-woo, everybody assumes her as his girlfriend!

Gyun-woo finds himself in a relationship that he didn't ask for, but soon after, becomes unable to forget this sassy girl.
